Savios Proud of Mario

Mario Savio, 22, Free Speech Movement leader, today was under praise by his parents and brother in Glendora as an "individual who would not permit an injustice to exist."

Mario, a tall and blond philosophy student at the University of California at Berkeley, has been in the news fronts for his role in student demonstrations at the university.

His father, Joseph Savio, 44, a sheet metal worker, of 1216 E. Northridge Ave., speaking also for Mario's mother, Dora, and another son, Thomas Robert, 18, told The Herald Examiner:

"I feel that he is doing what he wants to do and what he is doing is just and right. I'm convinced he has a righteous cause."

FAMILY OPINION

"Mario's activities, in our family opinion, are justified because he is the type of individual who would not permit an injustice to exist."

"He doesn't like to see injustices done. He only wants to help people . . . by speaking for them if they can't speak, and to help them with their needs—like food, clothing and support in their work."

The father said: "Mario is not a violent person. He abhors violence in any form. . . . Consequently, he does not want to hurt other people, and he therefore would not defend himself physically. . . ."

"He has religion in him. Our family is Catholic. When he visits here he attends church with us. (When we lived in Queens, N.Y.) he was an altar boy at the Lady of the Snows Roman Catholic Church."

HONOR SOCIETY

"Mario was elected to a high school national honor society, and the National Association of Student Councils awarded him a medal for excellence as student body president of Martin Van Buren High School in Queens."

"He has been awarded citizenship medals by the Jewish War Veterans . . . In 1960, he was voted teenager of the year by the Child Service League in Queens. . . ."

"He was on the honor roll all through high school, at Manhattan College and Queens College. . . ."

"Mario spent the summer before last with a group of Queens students in Taxco, Mexico, building laundry facilities so that the people there would not have to wash

Savio Refuses to Enter Plea to Sit-in Charges

Judge Orders Not Guilty Answer Be Given for Him and Continues Case Until Feb. 24

BY DARYL E. LEMBKE

Times Staff Writer

BERKELEY — Mario Savio (the university president), refused in municipal court here Tuesday night to enter a plea to charges arising out of the University of California sit-ins he led two months ago.

Called before Judge Rupert Crittenden for arraignment, the 22-year-old Free Speech Movement leader asked to make a one-minute statement "owing to the unusual nature of the plea."

The judge replied that "at this stage, you can plead guilty, not guilty or nolo contendere (no contest) and no explanation is necessary."

Judge Continues Case

Savio, first of 93 demonstrators scheduled for arraignment in an unusual night meeting, said he would not enter any plea at all. The judge then directed that a not guilty plea be entered for the defendant and continued the case to Feb. 24.

One other defendant, Mike Rossman, a member of the FSM steering committee, also refused to enter a plea. All other defendants pleaded not guilty.

Later, Savio said he refused to plead because "the entire proceeding is irrelevant and unfair."

"It is irrelevant," he said, "because the issues discussed are obscure and minute points of law. The real issues are constitutional rights. Those who should be on trial are those who have been abridging constitutional rights such as Clark Kerr

(the university president), Governor Brown, et al.

"It is unfair because we have already been tried in the press. We've been found guilty in the press through distortion and fabrication."

The former philosophy major, who dropped out of school because of his activities in the protest movement, said he will not re-enroll for the spring semester because he "needs a rest."

The defendants face one or more charges of trespassing, failure to disperse and resisting arrest.

Those appearing were among nearly 800 demonstrators arrested Dec. 3 for sitting in at Sproul Hall, the university administration building. Their demonstration stemmed from a battle with the university over rules governing political action on campus.

Before beginning the arraignments, Judge Crittenden overruled a defense demurrer which sought to quash the charges on grounds that the statutes the students are accused of violating are vague and unconstitutional in light of recent U.S. Supreme Court rulings on civil rights cases.

However, the judge granted a defense motion for a closed pre-trial hearing Feb. 10. Presumably, complications involved in trying so many defendants will be discussed at that hearing.

Pleadings will continue with about 100 defendants day for the rest of the week.

LOVE SPRINGS FROM SIT-IN--- SAVIO TO WED

OAKLAND (AP) — Mario Savio, 22, former leader of the Free Speech Movement of the University of California and fellow demonstrator Suzanne Marilyn Goldberg, 25, applied Friday for a marriage license.

They received the license in the Alameda County court house after Miss Goldberg paid the $2 fee.

Savio said they plan to marry "reasonably soon," possibly this weekend. They fell in love, they said, during the Berkeley sit-in demonstrations last November and December.

Savio, a New York City native, listed himself as an unemployed student. Miss Goldberg, also a New Yorker, is a graduate student in philosophy.

REJECTS PROBATION

FSM Leader Savio Gets Four Months

Wife Also Sentenced

By FRED ALLGOOD

Mario Savio was sentenced to four months in jail yesterday for leading the student demonstrations at the University of California last fall.

His wife Suzanne, also a key figure in the Free Speech Movement which organized the all night sit-in at Sproul Hall on the Berkeley campus Dec. 2, got a 45-day jail sentence from Berkeley Municipal Judge Rupert Crittenden.

Two other leaders of the sit-in students were ordered jailed, bringing to six the total jail terms handed down to the 773 defendants since sentencing started last week.

Another 18 students were given the option of paying up to $300 in fines or spending 30 days in jail after they refused to accept probation because the terms prohibited them from indulging in unlawful sit-ins.

Ten defendants accepted probation and were fined $150.

Judge Crittenden looked fit after his six day flu-enforced absence from the courtroom. He allowed Savio to read a statement explaining why he rejected probation.

"The terms of probation imply that politically motivated civil disobedience is somehow bad behavior. Far from it.

"With American politics in the hands of the morally and intellectually bankrupt, rebellion is a positive duty," he said.

"If the court means to prescribe how we act politically, it sets itself squarely against the noblest of our heritage," he added.

Suzanne Savio quoted from Thomas Jefferson when she was given permission to address the judge.

"The right to revolution is the right of a free people," she quoted.

The probation terms, she said, deprived her of her right to engage in political action and to dissent from governmental policy.

The fourth person who demanded the right to speak yesterday was Matthew Halinan.

"I know your father. He is a very eloquent man," said the judge with a smile. "I hope you'll be brief."

He was, merely stating that he declined probation. He was fined $300 or given a 30-day sentence in jail.

His brother Conn, also declining probation, was fined $250 or had the option of a 25-day jail sentence.

Also jailed by the judge was Brian Turner who got 60 days. A former FSM leader, he is now a senator in the Student Government in Berkeley. Syd Stapleton, a member of the FSM steering committee, received 30 days.

All sentences were stayed pending appeal.

One of the nine four-letter-men convicted of obscenity last June, Ed Rosenfeld, made a defiant statement rejecting probation.

"If the defendants had chosen to accept probation, the anti-social forces in the community would have won a great victory. But they failed."

Albert Litewka mildly rebuked the judge for provoking defendants by spelling out conditions of probation limiting civil rights activity.

The lightest sentence yesterday went to Mona Hutchin, the young co-ed who was arrested on a San Francisco cable car last November for insisting on standing up on the outside. She was fined $50.

The box score of sentences to date: jailed 6; fined $300, 15; fined $250, 3; fined $150, 79; fined $50 one; no fine, one.

Sentencing resumes this morning.

★ ★ ★ Keep Savio Off the Campus

Mario Savio, the itinerant — and perennial — college student, has applied for readmission to the University of California at Berkeley.

The University should hand him a positive rejection.

Whether or not Savio, who led the disruptive "free speech" movement at Berkeley, has good grades or not is beside the point. The University surely has students on the waiting list, of good character, with better academic records.

The presence of Savio on the campus poses the danger of militant activity against campus rules and the possibility of further flareups such as those which disrupted the educational processes for thousands of sincere students.

The Berkeley authorities have done much to restore the good image of a great university. Rejection of Savio's application will help the trend.

4 in UC Case Disobey Court

Exclusive to The Times from a Staff Writer

BERKELEY — Four of the six nonstudents whose arrests at a University of California sit-in here last month touched off a "student strike" were charged with contempt of court Friday for conducting a press conference to discuss their case.

The contempt charges were filed against Jerry Rubin, 28; Stewart Albert, 28; Michael J. Smith Jr., 25, and Steven Hamilton, 22, after the press conference in front of Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court.

The four, along with Mario Savio, 24, and William Miller, 25, are scheduled to go on trial Monday in Veterans Auditorium on charges of trespassing and creating a public nuisance at the sit-in.

The press conference was a violation of a Dec. 18 order by Municipal Judge George Brunn prohibiting the defendants, prosecution, police or the university from releasing "information or opinion concerning the trial" to any news media.

Rubin, leader of the now-dormant Vietnam Day Committee which conducted antiwar marches and demonstrations in 1965 and 1966, told the press conference that what he called Brunn's "gag rule" was being violated because it was detrimental to the defense.

Mario Savio Gets 90 Days For UC Protest

BERKELEY, March 1 (AP) —A 90-day jail term and $350 fine are Mario Savio's penalty for joining a demonstration against a Navy recruiting team at the University of California's Student Union.

Municipal Court Judge Floyd Talbott imposed jail terms and fines yesterday on Savio and four others convicted of committing a public nuisance in the protest last Nov. 30.

A busload of Alameda County sheriff's deputies were called to put down violence at the demonstration.

As a student, Savio led the 1964 Free Speech Movement's sit-in occupation of Sproul Hall which resulted in more than 750 arrests.

Supreme Court Won't Review UC Sentences

WASHINGTON (UPI)

—The Supreme Court refused Monday to review the convictions of Mario Savio and 564 others arrested during the 1964 disturbances at UC Berkeley.

The court acted in a brief order, with no opinion.

The appeal claimed to raise "two of the central constitutional issues inherent in the growing number of large-scale civil or political demonstrations."

"The first," the appeal said, "involves the constitutionality of wide-ranging trespass statutes when applied against passive demonstrations in nonsensitive public locations, particularly in educational centers."

"The second question involves the constitutionality of resisting arrest statutes when applied against refusal to cooperate actively in post-arrest removal procedures."

Arrests Made in 1964

The arrests were made Dec. 2, 1964. The group was urging university authorities to permit greater political activity on campus.

Savio, then a junior, was a leader of the "Free Speech Movement," which supported the demonstration.

Sentences, imposed in the Municipal Court for the Berkeley-Albany District, on July 19, 1965, ranged from probation to 120 days in jail. Fines ranged from $25 to $400.

Savio was among those given a jail sentence.

Of the total, 469 were convicted of obstructing a public officer in the performance of his duties and refusal to leave a public agency after closing hours. The rest were convicted only on the second charge.

The students are expected to surrender to begin their sentences June 20.

Mario And BettinaUC Protest Leaders
Start Jail Sentences

BERKELEY (UPI) — Mario Savio and Bettina Aptheker Kurzweil, leaders of the 1964 Free Speech Movement at the University of California, went to jail today for their part in the Sproul Hall sit-in.

Municipal Court Judge George Brunn order them to begin serving their sentences immediately after refusing a request by Mrs. Kurzweil's attorney that her imprisonment be delayed because she is pregnant.

They were taken by bus to Santa Rita Prison Farm, where Savio will serve 120 days and Mrs. Kurzweil 45 days.

Savio's wife, the former Suzanne Goldberg, won a three-week delay in beginning her 45-day sentence. Judge Brunn allowed her until July 20 to find someone to care for the couple's 18-month-old son while both are in jail.

Show No Regret

Both Savio and Mrs. Kurzweil indicated they had no regrets.

Savio, 23, said before entering the courtroom the Free Speech Movement was "one of the most important events in American higher education. For my son's sake, it was a good thing."

Mrs. Kurzweil, 22, an avowed Communist, indicated earlier she was "not ashamed" of going to jail — "in fact, I'm rather proud of it."

About 70 spectators stood silently as Savio entered the courtroom. Friends of Mrs.

Kurzweil presented her with a chocolate cake, with a hacksaw stuck in the middle, as she walked in.

A total of 68 convicted sit-in participants were fined or jailed during the hour-long court session. Judge Brunn has sentenced more than 400 of the 576 youths since the U.S. Supreme Court rejected their final appeal earlier this month.

LA Girl Prefers Jail

Roberta Alexander, one of two girls expelled from Spain last month for anti-Vietnam war activities, was among six persons Thursday who chose jail rather than pay fines for participating in the speech sit-ins.

Miss Alexander, 20, of Los Angeles, had the option of paying a $250 fine but elected to go to jail for 25 days instead.

She was among 68 who surrendered Thursday in the wake of the Supreme Court ruling. Most were sentenced to probation or fines, and a few were given alternative penalties.

Others who preferred jail to fines were Barbara Bozman, 25 days; Stanley Moore, 15 days; Sylvia Kalitinsky, 25 days; Donna Watson, 25 days; and Matthew Zion, 25 days.

One student, Richard Colby, asked the court to revoke his previously paid fine so he could spend some time in jail for "the experience." Municipal Judge Brunn refused.

The title of this clipping is as follows:

"STUDENTS AT UC FACE NEW DISCIPLINARY ACTION"

"Campus Group Sends Ultimatum to Board of Regents Demanding Reinstatement of 4".

"New trouble appeared to be brewing Friday on the UC Berkeley Campus. These were the developments:

"A student group that included Free Speech Movement Leader MARIO SAVIO, sent a telegram to the UC Board of Regents, which met Friday at UCLA, demanding immediate reinstatement of four students who were suspended or dismissed earlier this week because of alleged participation in an obscenity display.

"The new disciplinary charges at Berkeley arose from incidents at a rally held in the Student Union Plaza to protest the dismissal of graduate student Arthur Goldberg and the suspension of three others for their part in obscenity demonstrations.

"The telegram was signed 'Provisional Committee to Protect Student Rights at UC, Berkeley' and bore the names of SAVIO; Frank Darknell; Suzanne Goldberg (sister of Art Goldberg, the student who was expelled); Sylvia Kalitinsky; et al.

"At the press conference at UCLA after the regents' meeting, it was Kerr who said the telegram, 'making certain demands', will be referred to Meyerson.

"Kerr said he sees 'no chance whatsoever' that Meyerson will agree to the student demands or 'that I will recommend they be accepted. Or that the regents will accept them."

"The Free Speech Movement was labeled 'not as bad as reported' at the University of California Thursday, in a rally commemorating the campus sit-in disorders of a year ago.

"The rally was staged at noon on the steps of Sproul Hall, campus administration building from which Berkeley authorities forcibly removed 801 demonstrators in a day long outbreak of student disobedience Dec. 2-3, 1964.

"About 2,000, most of them students, turned out for the rally, which was orderly.

"Associate Prof. John Searle, Special Assistant on Student Organization to UC Chancellor Roger Heyns, told the rally the Free Speech Movement was not as bad as reported.

"The rally wound up with puppet show in which the speech of then student MARIO SAVIO, FSM leader, was re-broadcast. At the conclusion several hundred students walked into Sproul Hall and out again, following the route of those hauled out bodily last December."

"The title of this clipping is as follows;

"It's Your Country! ----and your taxes."

"An interesting panel discussion held at the Valley Unitarian Church on Haskell Avenue in Sepulveda dwelt on 'Peace and Freedom'...two very inspiring subjects.

"Moderating the 'peaceful' (?) discussion was New Politics educational reform candidate in the spring school board elections, Donald Freed. Joining him were Michael Hannon, New Politics Attorney for dissident students (anything from trespassing to draft resisting); Donald Kalish, UCLA Prof.; Farrel Broslawsky, Valley College teacher; Vickie Horne and 'Brother Lennie' (reincarnated or otherwise). Topic was 'Which Way the Peace Movement'.....

"It was decided, among other things, to push hard for registrations for the New Peace and Freedom Party, a statewide registration campaign to put candidates on the ballot for President and Vice President of the United States in 1968, and to build a party that is against war, enabling (it is hoped) to get an independent candidate for President on the ballot, and thereby be able to run candidates in the Nov. election who will not support the war in Vietnam.

"Among the sponsors of the Peace and Freedom Party were listed, aside from Freed, Dr. Frank Lindenfield, and Edward Moritz, Jr., two other unsuccessful New Politics candidates for the Board of Education posts in the recent primaries...also MARIO SAVIO of the Berkeley Free Speech Movement fame (listed as a Political Prisoner); John Haag, New Politics Coordinator; Attorney Hannon; Pat Arnold of the Valley Peace Center."

Newspaper Clipping taken from the "Los Angeles Times",
Los Angeles, California, Sec. C, :Pgs.1,4,5, dated 7/6/69, Final Edition.

The title on this clipping is as follows:

"PROTESTERS OF '64"

"Berkeley Leaders Face New World"

"The student revolution began in Berkeley in 1964. This is an intimate look at the Free Speech Movement leaders who started that revolution. For the most part, they still are part of the Berkeley community.

"The People's Park annex, a narrow and scarred vacant lot about half a mile east of the University of California campus, was quiet.

"At one end of the park, a figure appeared on the top of a truck and began to speak.

He told his audience they had better be prepared to die....there were cries of 'No!No!' from the crowd, but above the tumult also rose shouts of approval. The speaker was Art Goldberg. He used to be known as 'Marshmallow Maoist' who once paraded with a sign reading: 'Racism is a Paper Tiger'.

"That was five years ago when Goldberg was one of the organizers of the "Free Speech Movement" at Berkeley.

"The 'Free Speech Movement' grew out of the 'Civil Rights Movement' and as one Berkeley professor recently suggested, 'it was the last gasp of the 'old style' civil rights movement.

"On certain days now, MARIO SAVIO, age 26, can be found in a book store four blocks south of the campus, where he works part time as a stock clerk.

"He is tall, stooped a bit. His sandy hair has grown long and wiry, and his face is ringed by a coarse beard. Despite his craggy aspect, there is warmth and humor in his eyes and he is not unpleasant.

"But he is distant. He does not like to talk about the old FSM, nor today's movements, explaining with a smile that he is 'very much opposed to elder statesmen'.

"If SAVIO has been a statesman at all, it has been from a kind of self-imposed exile. He has not been active in the majority of movements that have arisen with seasonal regularity at Berkeley since the FSM, and when he occasionally passes through a crowd at a rally or demonstration he is often unnoticed by the students bent on new causes.

"(As part of this news clipping there is a picture of MARIO SAVIO speaking and also his picture as he appeared 5 years ago.)

"He left Berkeley in the spring following the 'Free Speech Movement', after being married to Suzanne Goldberg (no relation to Art), a graduate student in philosophy who was also a member of the 'Free Speech Movement' steering committee. For a year he traveled widely, speaking to student groups about the Berkeley movement. He also studied briefly in England.

"In the Fall of 1966, he was refused readmission to the University. But he led several demonstrations during the year, until, in July, he began serving a 200 day jail sentence on charges resulting from FSM arrests. After serving 120 days he was released on good behavior by a judge who said: 'It appears Mario has reformed.'

"And then since then, Berkeley has heard little from MARIO SAVIO.

"His friends, many of whom became close to him during the 'Free Speech Movement' look upon SAVIO with an admiration and affection that is rare among them, for student movements develop their share of petty jealousies and disputes.

"His attentions have turned inward, his friends say; for one thing, there were the severe medical problems of his child, who was a year old when SAVIO got out of jail and his family seemed to occupy his interests. He ran a fitful campaign for the State Senate last summer on the 'Peace and Freedom' Party ticket, but his heart did not seem to be in it.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Despite its broad leadership, it was SAVIO's name which became most widely identified with the old FSM, and while little suggests that SAVIO has rejected the revolution, there is a hint that he has paid heavily for it.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Continued:

"SAVIO had been a serious student of physics and the valedictorian of his New York City High School, distinctions which won him a scholarship to a New York College. After two and a half years at colleges there, he moved to California and enrolled at Berkeley with grades a fraction off perfect and abandoned physics for philosophy.

"But SAVIO, frequently described by his UC professors as a brilliant student, did not obtain a degree from Berkeley. And some professors there view it as tragic that the 'Free Speech Movement' seemed to sour him on education.

"I tried going back to schools once 'at Oxford University in England' and I just could not do it. It took me a long time but I finally gave it up for good.

"It was one of the few conversational crumbs SAVIO dropped one day a few weeks ago in a brief and often interrupted conversation in the book store as he strode quickly among the shelves checking off inventory on a clipboard.

"His interests in politics and philosophy have broadened enough, apparently, to include the violin.

"I took my first lesson last week. I've always wanted to make beautiful music.

"The People's Park and other controversies seem to rage on around SAVIO, although not without his notice and interest.

"Something new is happening, he said, pausing to scan the bookshelf. 'The old bourgeoisie is dying. A whole new way of life is replacing it in all the industrialized nations of the world.

"He paused a moment..considering his clipboard. 'Let's see....'Babies Are Human'. Must be under child care. He stepped away in search of the book.

"I think if I had been born at the right time I could have been a pretty good physicist...a pretty good physicist."

Subject: "FREE SPEECH MOVEMENT"

"Title: 'Profs Issue Statements; FSM Sit-Ins Held, Halted.'

(Former UCLA student Bruce Herstell, now at UC
Berkeley, has been reporting to the Daily Bruin on the Cal Free Speech Movement since renewed demonstrations three weeks ago.)

"Two thousand UC Berkeley students held a rally at noon Monday in the Free Speech Movement's continuing protest against the university policy on free speech.

"MARIO SAVIO, Head of FSM, began the rally by reviewing the events that led up to the demonstrations of the past three weeks and explaining that FSM had gone through all the channels of discussion before it began demonstrating.

"At that point he said he was in favor of a sit-in demonstration at Sproul Hall, the Berkeley administration building.

"Following SAVIO's remarks, Dr. Lawrence W. Levine, Assistant Professor of History, read a statement signed by ten members of the Dept. of History, attacking UC regulations on political activities.

"SAVIO spoke again in reference to the Board of Regents ruling that the university could take action against students who advocated illegal off-campus activities on the campus.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

100-66367-16
Continued:

"It is not a question of students wanting to advocate unlawful acts but rather of the university wanting to decide what constitutes an abuse of free speech. This is the prerogative of the courts, SAVIO said.

"The administration has asked for powers to both hand down indictments and pass sentences, he added.

"SAVIO again spoke in favor of a moral protest sit-in. He made it clear that no faculty member had advocated this sit-in and that it was up to the individual to join in.

"Professor Levine said that the sit-in was a mistake because it might alienate too many people. He called for continued maintenance of the students' rights.

"SAVIO, after meeting with the FSM steering committee, said he felt the movement was committing suicide but he was compelled to tell all to leave at 5 PM."

"Free Speech Movement leaders from UC Berkeley urged UCLA students to 'recognize their inescapable involvement in the free speech issue and set on these issues.'

"MARIO SAVIO, Andrew Wells, and Evan Alderson, spoke before an estimated 450 people in the SU Grand Ballroom Wednesday, Nov. 25, as part of the Distinguished Speakers Program.

"In admonishing UCLA Students to support the "Free Speech Movement", SAVIO said, (Your fellow students at Cal are risking their careers by freeing themselves and you.)

"He charged that the administration doesn't mind advocating overthrow of the government on campus but as soon as an action has some consequences, such as a civil rights sit-in, the administration folds to outside pressure and limits the student's free speech.

"The sit in was in protest of new disciplinary action

"SAVIO, Head of the 'Free Speech Movement', announced

"Hopes for a peaceful settlement of the Berkeley Free Speech controversy were temporarily shaken Monday when police hustled Free Speech Movement Leader MARIO SAVIO off the stage of the UC Greek Theater.

"The scuffle occurred when SAVIO attempted to address 13,000 students who assembled at 11 AM to hear UC President Clark Kerr and Prof. R. A. Scalapino, chairman of the Political Science Dept., outline proposals for resolution of the 2 and 1/2 month old conflict. President Kerr, scheduled for an address in Chicago, cancelled the trip late Sunday.

"In a joint statement issued by President Kerr and Prof. Scalapino, the two men professed 'complete surprise' at SAVIO's attempt to seize the microphone. "SAVIO was denied this request(to address the assembly) because the meeting was structured for a particular purpose, to permit the department chairmen to present their proposals and allow the President to state his view.

"SAVIO, at the urging of the crowd chanting 'We want MARIO' and the intervention of Asst. Prof. of Sociology John C. Leggett, returned to the Stage ten minutes later to announce an FSM rally at noon on the steps of the Sproul Hall Administration Building."

"At the conclusion of the address of Professor Scalapino, MARIO SAVIO leaped for the microphone and attempted to address the assembly. He was seized by the UC Police Officers who removed him from the stage. The assembly at this time shouted, 'Let him speak', and several student demonstrators physically attempted to prevent the police officers from removing SAVIO from the platform. However, the police officers were successful in removing SAVIO and approximately ten minutes later, Professor Joseph Tussman, Chairman, Dept. of Philosophy, UC, personally escorted SAVIO back to the microphone where he announced that a student rally would be held in the area between Sproul Hall and the Student Union building on the UC Campus, and a crowd estimated at 8,000 followed him there. SAVIO had also announced that any members of the Dept. Heads Committee, who drafted the administrative proposal, would be allowed to address the students."

"Some of these interviews have been 'pretty rough', Byrne conceded, but not as rough as he had expected.

"As the Byrne investigation continues, the combat atmosphere at Berkeley has lessened somewhat. A rumored attempt by the 'Free Speech Movement' to interfere with second semester registration did not occur."

"This Wednesday, Feb. 17 at noon in the Theater, T. Walter Herbert, a mediator in the recent campus disturbances at UC, Berkeley, speaks on 'Crisis In The University.' As prelude to this discussion we urge you to read this article which hits upon some of the basic issues of campus life.

(Canterbury Fellowship, Lutheran Student Association, UCCF, Wesley Club at CSCLA)

"An End To History - by MARIO SAVIO"

"Mr. SAVIO was a junior in philosophy and a leader of the 'Free Speech Movement' at the University of California, at Berkeley. This article was edited from a tape made by Mr. SAVIO while he was engaged in a sit-in in Sproul Hall on the University Campus. Police hauled him and 800 other demonstrators off to jail a few hours after the tape was completed.

"Last summer I went to Mississippi to join the struggle there for civil rights. This fall, I am engaged in another phase of the same struggle, this time in Berkeley....It is a struggle against the same enemy.

"In California, the privileged minority manipulates the University bureaucracy to suppress the students' political expression. That 'respectable' bureaucracy masks the financial plutocrats; that impersonal bureaucracy is the efficient enemy in a 'Brave New World'.

"The things we are asking for in our civil rights protests have a deceptively quaint ring. We are asking for the due process of law. We are asking for our actions to be judged by committees of our peers. We are asking that regulations ought to be considered as arrived at legitimately only from the consensus of the governed....

"This free speech fight points up a fascinating aspect of contemporary campus life. Students are permitted to talk all they want so long as their speech has no consequences. One conception of the university, suggested by a classical Christian formulation, is that it be in the world but not of the world.

"The Administration of the Berkeley campus has admitted that external, extra-legal groups have pressured the university not to permit students on campus to organize picket lines, nor to permit on campus any speech with consequences.

"It is a bleak scene, but it is all alot of us have to look forward to. Society provides no challenge. America is becoming ever more the utopia of the sterilized, automated contentment. The 'futures' and 'careers' for which American students now prepare are for the most part intellectual and moral wastelands."

"They have made a desert and called it peace".

"It is two years since the U. S. Government began bombing North Vietnam. For two years the U. S. Government has continued to escalate the war and spent ever increasing sums of money. In Vietnam the war is being paid for by the increasing shedding of the blood of American and Vietnamese soldiers, and the ever increasing killing of Vietnamese civilians.

"The war in Vietnam makes it clear that the administration of this country with the complicity of the colleges and universities prefers to train Americans to become instruments of war instead of enlightened human beings.

"We, the Student Mobilization Committee, urge all those students who wish to oppose the criminal war in Vietnam to dedicate themselves anew to the task of ending the war. Specifically we propose that April 8-15th be designated as Vietnam Week. We urge national student action during Vietnam Week which will culminate in the transportation of as many students as possible to New York and San Francisco as part of the general Spring Mobilization of the antiwar movement on April 15th.

"It is especially appropriate that we American students fighting for the right to determine our own future, support the right of self determination throughout the world and call for international opposition to the war in Vietnam, which denies the right of self-determination to the people of Vietnam."

A pamphlet put out by the "Student Mobilization Committee" % 'Women For Peace', 2495 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California, 94704, January 13, 1967.

"Dear Friend:

"On Sunday, 2/5/67 beginning at 10:00 AM, at 55 Colton Street in San Francisco there will be a meeting open to all students and faculty to plan the implementation of West Coast student actions against the war in Vietnam, April 8-April 14.

"Enclosed is a copy of the Call for a Conference to plan a National Student Strike for Peace which was held in Chicago December 28-30. The conference was attended by some 300 students representing thirty states and dozens of universities and colleges. The Conference resulted in the call for a National Student Mobilization April 8-April 14 designated as Vietnam Week. It was agreed that following the Student Mobilization as many students as possible would participate in the general Spring Mobilization on April 15.

"Proposed student actions include one day strikes for peace on those campuses where it is possible and appropriate. Other possible actions include the holding of 'War Crimes Tribunals' on those campuses particularly involved in war research and holding government contracts to foster the war in Vietnam. These 'Tribunals' might consist of hearings and the presentation of evidence resulting in indictments against the university for complicity in crimes against humanity; and in demands for the immediate cessation of such complicity. Other actions will of course be considered with the emphasis on finding the activity most suited to local campus situations.

"A Continuations Committee from the December conference will meet in New York City on Jan. 28 to continue the plans for implementation of the Student Mobilization...

"We invite to the meeting Feb. 5th representatives of organizations and interested individuals from the academic community. We look forward to seeing you to help lay the plans for the West Coast Student Mobilization: Feb. 5, 1967, 10 AM, 55 Colton St., in San Francisco.

"A series of speakers, using bullhorns, discussed possible student action to dramatize their discontent over the arrests. At 10 PM the meeting was still in progress.

"Arrested on charges of trespassing and maintaining a public nuisance were SAVIO; Jerry Rubin, a leader of the 'Vietnam Day Committee; Steve Hamilton, Mike Smith, Stewart Albert and William Miller. Bail was set at $440 for each.

"Wednesday's demonstration centered around a table which has been in the basement of the Student Hall all week near the entrance to a bookstore.

"It was manned by two Navy Officers and one Marine Corps Officer who were distributing information on how and where to enlist.

"While 75 persons sat on the floor, others made speeches, claiming that if the military people were allowed to have a table, then anti-war representatives should be permitted one.

"Those on hand included Bettina Aptheker, a UC student who is an admitted Communist, daughter of Marxist historian Herbert Aptheker and a leader in the Vietnam Day Committee.

"Because students at the University of California at Los Angeles have not turned out in massive free speech demonstrations as have the students at Berkeley, the impression has gotten around that they do not care about their rights.

"Hundreds of students who demonstrated for free speech on the UCLA campus do not, it is true, reflect a mass movement of the Berkeley dimensions. In that respect, UCLA students are not at this time prepared to take action similar to that of their Northern California counterparts.

"The preferred method of UCLA students, if the Bruin poll is representative, is for the free speech fight to be conducted through available and authorized University channels, such as recent Student-Legislative Committee-Graduate Student Assn. Joint Committee to recommend free speech proposals to the administration.

"The debate on free speech on the campus, which had been virtually dormant at UCLA prior to the appearance here of Berkeley's 'Free Speech Movement' leader MARIO SAVIO several weeks ago, was in full sway by the time of the Christmas holidays last weekend."
